SYRACUSE, N. Y.

PRIVIES AND CESSPOOLS—CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE.

SEC. 7, SUBD. C. No privy vaults, sink, or cesspool hereafter shall be built except by permission of the commissioner and in accordance with his directions; nor shall any building or cover be placed over any such vault, sink, or cesspool until the same has been inspected and found to be in accordance with the permit granted. All such privy vaults or cesspools shall be built of brick, stone, or cement. All privy vaults hereafter made shall be of such dimensions as to contain at least 50 cubic feet for every family or group of five persons using the same; and such vault shall be so constructed as to be conveniently cleaned, and shall be made and maintained in such manner as to prevent the contents thereof from escaping. No privy vault or cesspool hereafter shall be built except in such places where there can not be had connection with a public sewer, or with the public or other constant water service; and no privy vault or cesspool shall be built or maintained except upon premises which will permit their location at a distance of at least 5 feet from any adjoining building used for human occupation, or for the storage of human food, and at least 5 feet distant from the several lot lines of the lot on which the same is placed or the lines of any street adjoining such lot. In cases where the provisions of this ordinance do not allow privy vaults there shall be provided for all premises on which there are houses or other buildings used for human habitation, either for business, meeting, or dwelling purposes, a water-closet or a suitable number thereof, as determined by the commissioner.

No privy vaults or cesspools shall be allowed to remain on any lot adjoining a street containing a sewer and city water.

Whenever any vault, privy, or drain shall become offensive or obstructed, the owner, agent, or occupant of the property where it is situated shall clean or repair the same forthwith. No privy vault shall be cleaned, emptied, or removed without a special permit from the commissioner, except by a licensed scavenger. Whenever satisfied that any privy is offensive and should be removed or needs cleaning, the commissioner shall notify the owner, agent, or occupants of the property to remove or clean the same within the period named in said notice. In case the owner or agent fails or neglects to do so, or in case the owner or agent is unknown, the commissioner shall cause such offensive privy to be removed, abolished, or cleaned. Where the owner, agent, or occupant neglects or refuses to comply with the order, the commissioner may cause such vault, privy, or drain to be removed, altered, repaired, or cleaned, as he may deem expedient, and the costs of such removal, alteration, repairing, or cleaning shall be collected from the owner of the property in the manner provided in section 4, subdivision B, and shall be a lien upon the premises as provided in section 4, subdivision C.

The cleaning, emptying, and removing of the contents of privy vaults shall be done in an inoffensive manner, and any scavenger having begun any such work shall, without interruption or delay, finish the same, and shall in every instance leave the privy in as good condition upon the vault as when the work was undertaken. The contents of privy vaults so removed shall be disposed of in a manner approved of by the commissioner.

During the prevalence of epidemics or contagious diseases all putrid and offensive matter and all night soil and the contents of sinks, privies, vaults, or cesspools, before their removal or exposure, shall be disinfected and rendered inoffensive by the owner, lessee, or occupant of the premises where situated; and if not so done, then said disinfecting shall be done by the contractor who removes the same; and the person, not being such tenant, owner, or occupant, who shall so disinfect or remove the same shall be entitled to demand and receive a compensation to be fixed by the commissioner and paid by such tenant, owner, or occupant.

No person shall deposit any slops, liquid of any offensive kind, garbage, contents of sink, privy, or cesspool, manure, offal, or anything which can become offensive to human beings or detrimental to public health upon any street, lot, public or vacant
